DEAR HIRING MANAGER,

I am writing to express my interest in the junior web developer position, With my passion for web development and gaming, along with my knowledge and experience in the required technologies, I believe I would be a valuable addition to your team.

as a computer engineering graduate, I have developed decent software engineering skills and made some full stack projects. using HTML, CSS, JavaScript, and Node.js

As a former teacher transitioning into web development, I bring a unique skill set that aligns perfectly with the requirements of the role, My experience as a teacher has honed my communication skills, enabling me to effectively convey complex information and collaborate with colleagues and clients. I am adaptable and thrive in dynamic environments, having tailored my teaching methods to meet diverse learning needs.

I May have not the full-time experience but I assure you that I'm passionate about this field and am able to learn as quick as possible and I believe that I have the potential to be a great Junior Full Stack Developer and would be a valuable asset to your team. I am eager to learn and grow in this role, and would appreciate the opportunity to do so.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

sincerely,
